

Huzzah's Bank Report

Huzzahs was advertised as a limited plot game of moderate duration (sanctioned for 4 hours) but because of the many personalization encounters, most involving most PCs, the game lasted 6 hours with high ratings. The combats were quite challenging. The mix of outdoor action mostly in the shade and air conditioned dining hall was excellent. Way more excitement than expected! Congratulations are in order to Seth Bush, Sarah Gibson, David Gibson, and David Spence and everyone else who helped make it happen!

Thanks to Tina Spence for all the pictures!

Personalizations included the arrival of a “one-eyed traveler” looking for Esbjorn to offer him an opportunity to show his worth to avoid Hel’s plans for him. Shortly after, Hel showed up to object to this interference. Raum was also part of the discussion. Hel brought Giants to enforce her rights and the PCs chose to take Odin and Esbjorn’s side. PCs won the tough fight, and Hel marked those who opposed her.

A one-eyed stranger arrives

Nitsu was attacked by an agent of the Silver Hammer (an undead wolf) sent to murder any potential alphas.

There are concerns that the Silver Hammer seeks to corrupt King Kae-Su’s pack as some of the Knights of Tyr have been corrupted into the Knights of Death.

Knights of the Paragon of Death attacked Knightfall. They also threatened the life of Duke of Knightfall. On their defeat, the PCs discovered a scroll take from the Paragon of Life intended for the PCs. Gordon Dexter opened a gate to Mordra’s Spring and Narath with assistance from Gordon, Mathe, and Traveler led a ritual with a runic circle to dispell the Death Mark/Curse that had been placed on Tashlin, Black Jack, Gozer, and Trader Red. A side effect of this ritual was to create a second Holy Water Spring of Mordra (location; Forest Near Huzzah’s Tavern).

Nitsu ready to fight

Delwin's Magic Mushroom (David Spence in an awesome costume) arrived asking for aid against evil mice. Esbjorn and Traveler responded. After taking bites of the mushroom, they shrank in size and defeated the fierce evil mice. They are now considered followers of Delwin.

Tyler and John: two badass, vicious, evil Vorpall mice!

Visitors from the Everchanging City (doppelgangers) arrived asking to see Trader Red. They informed us she had been married in absentia to Prince Scorn by her father (unknown to her). They took her captive and attempted to carry her off. PCs objected and freed her after a fierce battle. The visitors declared that a state of war existed between Tarraline and the Everchanging City. Raiding forces from the Everchanging City could be really tough.

Trader Red objects!

Gozer arrives
