And now a word from our Newsletter chair . . .

While as the newsletter editor does not have the power to reward individual contributors, I can certainly take a moment to publicly recognize them. I do not have the words sufficient to express the delight I feel whenever I get a submission from Olan. Bank reports are always complete, entertaining. nicely formatted and even include pictures!. This makes my job so much easier. I can truly say that when most editors are scrambling to dig up content, contributors like this are truly a treasure. Olan's submissions are probably the largest reason why our chapter newsletter is such a success. It is also good to see some of our newer contributors following in his footsteps. (Thanks Tabitha!)

As always any submission is welcome( if not out right cherished). Articles, pictures, thoughts on games, communications in character, and other content are all acceptable for submission. I'll even welcome short stories about our lore or personal characters. Whatever it is, write it up and send it on over. Don't worry too much about formatting as I can handle that. Earn you chapter's newsletter chair's undying gratitude! Submit today!

Ok I've prattled enough. Once more, Thank you Olan!

Just a small note about this months edition. For lack of a better description , I shall have to describe this as the photo album edition which can be credited to David Spence who sent me a ton of pictures

Thanks, Paul

“Terraline Weapons Instructional Tournament” Bank Report

A great day for a tournament. There were a few clouds in the mix and some light rain but it was pretty fun to be out and to fight. Everyone was great and the PC's were very funny. Everyone had a great time and there were plenty of fights to go around.

The PC's were especially funny. Crispin decided to mess with my PC, Sakura, and kept referring to her as turtle bait and messing around with her. I learned to stay away from Crispin somewhat but he was a very good fighter. No One (Dane Lyon's Ranger) was especially funny and I kept referring to him as Mosquito because that was what he sounded like.

Alexander and Greyson

After some time of fighting, myself and Alexander got a little experience on how to fight together in a group. There were some amazing stuff and I think we both learned that you have to make a great plan of action to succeed. It all is about team work when you're in a group and just studying the individual to try and figure out their tactics and their fighting style.

David, Dane, and Seth

After the game, we went to a pizza place, where they had the best pizza ever!!! Then it was back to the Spence's house to hang out for a little bit. I had to leave early because of work the next day but the rest of the group decided to just hang out and have fun.

NPC Game Ratings:

Overall	Logistics	Design	Mental	Physical	Fighting	Risk
7	5	5	4	5	6	5

PC Game Ratings:

Overall	Logistics	Design	Mental	Physical	Fighting	Risk
8.57	9.14	8.86	5.29	6.57	8.57	5.86

It was a little confusing with the Ratings because mostly everybody was a PC. The NPC rating is for the watchdog and everyone else was put into the PC rating. The game as started about an hour and a half late because we didn't have enough people at the scheduled start time to begin the game.
