SOULLESS

A Dallas IFGS LARP Game

In the town of Fiorgynsheim there is a gathering of Kenders. Damnfairly Lizardking Catkiller has sent out a call for Kenders to come and gather for a new experience. Damnfairly has a letter from Freddie Mercury that grants him the title of Master of the Royal Messenger Corp and Dragonriders. Damnfairly is signing up Kenders to fill out the depleted corps and has also opened it up to taller people. In addition, he is looking for several champions to aide him in training the Kenders to fight so they are safe on their journeys.
