GENERAL GAME INFORMATION :

- We must have a commitment from 40 people minimum to make this game happen.
- FRIDAY NIGHT : the evening meal will be a POTLUCK! Please bring something tasty to share!
Crock Pots, casseroles, and cakes are all great options!
PLEASE inform (Sarah Gibson) Production Staff- of which side dish you're bringing to the festival!
- WEAPONS will NOT be allowed into the Tavern Area! Weapons, Shields, Bags & Other PC Relevant items will be required to keep them in the (cabin) designated Armory!
- You must sign up for and NPC at least one block of time during the game.
- Game fee covers camping, world course, mini-games, and random events throughout the game, Lunch & Breakfast on Saturday, and Breakfast Sunday morning.
- Everyone will PC and must NPC at some points in the game. We will need everyone who is a Safety Officer to fulfill that role at some point.
- This is a world course that will contain multiple line courses for people to play in. These will be posted on game day with explanation of game type, levels etc. on the sign-up sheet. More game info will be forthcoming as we get closer to game date.
- Portions of the main game or line courses will run in the dark, so bring a light source.
- There will be multiple contest and tournaments running all weekend. See the description below for more on the various contest and tournaments.
- There will be random events throughout the game we are not going to tell you about until they happen. ☺
- The cabins will not be available this time. We have plans for them.☺ The tavern will be available for overnight.
- There are camp sites. Bring your tent and camping gear if you plan to camp at the site. There are 2 cold water and 1 hot water showers, flush toilets, water, and power on-site. Game staff will be providing water. If you want soft drinks, snacks etc., bring them for yourself in an ice chest with your name on it.
- Bringing readymade snacks (veggie tray, fruit tray, cookies, marshmallows to roast over the fire, the makings of s'mores etc.) that everyone can share is encouraged. (Nothing that must be cooked.)
- Game site is less than 5 minutes away from stores, restaurants, and hotels if you do not want to camp.
- Parking will be on-site and secured from public.
- Do not leave valuables unattended or in the open. Please lock them in your car, out of sight.
- So far, we have made a very good impression on Parks and Recs. That is why they let us have the camp. Please be courteous and clean up after yourself. There may be Parks and Recs people either playing or observing the game, so please make them feel welcome.

- Ball of Giving!
- Celtic Jacks!
- Thieve's Chest!
- Quarto Tournament! - (*board game, to be played all day Saturday.)

Micro-Games :: Pie of the Beholder, The Pumpkin Thing!, & Cookbook Crockery.....

By Sarah Gibson, Henry Wood, and John Jones.

Risk: 6

About: Errands and chores need doing! With all the events keeping everyone busy--you may be called to help some folks around the new Soup Kitchen of the Fourfathers.

The Mini-Games -

PC fairness and Rules for overarching game not guaranteed in Mini-games!

All games are adjusted for levels 2-10!

- Soul Gem - by David Gibson.

Risk: 6 - Medium

About Game: Soul Gem & Furry critters have been absconded with. Herb has requested aide to return them! Heroic-Silly style Line Course

- Sacred Chalice - by Lyn Wood.

Risk: 4 - Low

About Game: Sou Flay, A young follower of the Fourfathers, has called for adventurers to help her on her quest to find the Sacred Chalice, an everful glass of 15th century old wine which is in the possession of "The Unicorn Wizard". Eat and Be Full! Light-hearted, Heroic style Line Course

- The Littlest Hydra- by Henry Wood.

Risk: 4 - Low

About Game: A Hydra has been spotted in the area. Everywhere it frequents, notes are found, scrawled and barely legible. All of them indicate a meeting of some kind. Maybe someone can go to that meeting, but is it really a good idea?
