

Lifestyles of the Rich and Bored

This is a light, easy game designed to give people a chance to level up a low level or new character, or even dust off an old high level character and stretch their legs a bit. ALL levels of PCs are welcomed (1-10). The game is designed as more of a bar game so no teams are required, but is the continuation of a previous game run in 2009, To Free a Lady. You do not need to have played in the previous game to play, and will be held at Winter Park on Saturday May 28th.

All guests to the party are asked to RSVP to Allison Pace at baburioppai@gmail.com.

Game start times and fees: NPCs = 8:00am / $5, PCs = 9:00am / $15
