

Reap What You Sew.

A roleplay-heavy bar style game for PC's of evil or dubious nature of levels 1-10

The Underdark welcomes all disreputable members of society to a Summit of Evil, wherein the Domination of the world may be discussed freely, all devious thoughts be spoken aloud with no judgment, and Cookies may be shared by all friends of the Dark Side of life. Bring your knowledge and your wares, it is not known who will be around and someone might just have what you are looking for. Hosted by Lady Thistledown and her sister, Lady Thistledown, Dark Mages of Runelore, and sponsored by her not so highness Castora Ciel, who's host body graciously gives it's riches in the name of all that is evil
