Boon: Essence of the Ifrit	333	978	2	Y	Y	1

- Well, you've got some grandiose wishes. Shavrina can help you with one of them, by bottling the essence of her now-deceased ifriti cousin. That is a vital component of dragonhide armor. In the hands of a competent smith (i.e. submit an out of game action)
- along with six medium size scales from a dragon, and a suit of +0 plate, they can create magically resistant dragonhide armor. The process costs 2022gp in other, miscellaneous materials, as well.
- The result is a suit of +0 plate that only you can wear (cannot be traded or sold), that twice a day can provide you with an additional 10 points of protection from one form of attack (Cat I; armor base and +rings stack).
- The type of resistance depends on the scales involved: Red, Gold = Fire; Black, Green* = Acid & Corrosion; Blue = Lightning; White, Silver = Ice.
- For an additional 3300gp process (also an out-of-game action) the resistance bonus goes up to 20 points. *while the protection is active, this armor would be immune to the destructive effects of acid, rust monsters, etc...
- [Metagaming wise, what you're really getting is the ability to purchase this armor as an out-of-game action and a down payment on such.]
- This boon can never be traded or sold. Fini
